

What are .rar-files and what do I have to do with them?

.rar-files are larger files that are divided into several smaller files – "archives". Some newsreader clients will automatically download all necessary files, unpack them and put them together.

If your newsreader does not have this functionality you can unpack files yourself using a program like "WinRAR".

usenet.org Support

<https://help.usenet.org/Knowledgebase/50034/What-are-rarfiles-and-what-do-I...>